An interesting feature here is sequential learning. If you want to create a sequential learning unit, the student will not be able to progress to a second unit before completing the first.

6.4) don't forget to click Submit!

7) to modify or remove an assignment, folder or learning unit...

7.1) simply click either   next to the learning unit you want to modify or delete!

Please pay attention when you are removing folders. If you have assignments inside your folder, you will lose the materials inside them!
